FERPA Compliance

Security of Data: Student Records are protected under the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974. Students may not view their records without appropriate identification (university i.d. or driver's license). University officials with a legitimate educational interest may view student records. University officials may not release student record data without written permission of the student.

Certification: You will be required to review the University's policy of release of student information during the training session. I certify that I understand my responsibilities as an authorized user of the Banner Document Management System.
